

The Baltimore City Law Department seeks junior and senior level attorneys who are interested in public service and who want to represent a dynamic client, the Mayor & City Council of Baltimore, during a period of renewal and progress. Attorneys will receive the opportunity to work independently, to get hands-on experience through direct client interaction and/or courtroom experience, and to take responsibility for projects and cases that contribute to the revitalization of Baltimore City. Experience in contracts, litigation, and/or municipal law preferred. Candidates with all levels and types of legal experience will be considered, but at least two years experience is preferred. For all attorney positions, excellent client communication skills, strong work ethic, and Maryland Bar required. Salary commensurate with experience. Resumes to: George A. Nilson, City Solicitor, City Hall, 100 Holliday Street, Baltimore, MD 21202. Positions open until filled. EOE
