

Mayor Stephanie Rawlings-Blake

P R E S E N T S

The Mayor's Medallion for Meritorious Service

Recognizing excellence, the award is a testament to dedication, commitment and service to the City of Baltimore, by Baltimore City employees.

Meritorious service can take the form of a specific instance, stellar service, or a distinguished track record of consistent quality for Baltimore's citizens.

NOMINATIONS NOW OPEN

Multiple Medallions will be awarded.

Nominate a City employee who:

- Works to improve the quality of life for the citizens of Baltimore City.
- Provides exceptional customer service.
- Boosts team morale.
- Helps make government more efficient, effective, and transparent.
- Overcomes workplace obstacles.
- Demonstrates the initiative to improve and do better in their daily work.

Areas of focus:

- Better Schools
- Safer Streets
- Stronger Neighborhoods
- Growing Economy
- Innovative Government
- A Cleaner City
- A Healthier City

Eligibility:

- Nominations must be submitted by a Baltimore City resident or employee.
- Nominees must be currently employed by the City of Baltimore, including Quasi-Public Agencies and the Baltimore City Public School system & have worked for the City and/or Agency for at least three years.

Nominate
an exceptional
Baltimore City employee.

Deadline for nominations is Friday, July 15, 2016.

Visit
mayor.baltimorecity.gov/medallion

Contact
Mayor's Office
Attn: Amanda Rodrigues-Smith
100 Holliday Street, Room No. 237
Baltimore MD 21202
inspire@baltimorecity.gov